4093 Novanglus, and Massachusettensis; or Political Essays, published in 1774 and 1775, on the principal points of controversy between Gr. Britain and her Colonies. The former by John Adams, . . the latter by Jonathan Sewall [read, Daniel Leonard.] . . Added, Letters lately written by President Adams to Hon. William Tudor, pp. 312, half calf, marb. edges. 8° Boston, Hews & Goss, 1819

At the time the letters of Novanglus were first published (in the Boston Gazette, between Dec., 1774, and April, 1775,) and until after the publication of this revised edition in 1819, Mr. Adams believed that he recognized in Massachusettensis his old friend and correspondent, Jonathan Sewall. John Trumbull, who was studying law in Mr. Adams's office when the first of these letters appeared, made a better guess at the authorship. In the First Canto of "M'Fingal" (written in 1772), the tory 'Squire asks—

"Did not our Scribbler-gen'ral strain hard,
Our Massachusettensis Leonard?
Scrawl ev'ry moment he could spare,
From cards, and barbers, and the fair;
Show, clear as seen in noonday heavens,
You did not feel a single grievance?"

4100 — Additions to Common Sense; addressed to the Inhabitants of America, pp. 47, half mor.
8° Philadelphia; repr. London, J. Almon, 1776
With these "Additions," Paine had nothing to do. The pamphlet was made up by Robert Bell, the original publisher, after his quarrel with Paine, to be bound with the Third Edition of "Common Sense," with Paine's own Additions and "Appendix." The publication was a device to help the sale of Bell's edition against the one printed about the same time by W. and T. Bradford, who had become Paine's publishers.

The author finds in the "Memorial" (which was attributed to Governor Pownall) "so many quaint words, and dark expressions, intermixed with so many good thoughts and so much knowledge of America, that it seems worth translating"—into intelligible English. Gov. Pownall was not grateful; declaring that his ideas had been entirely misrepresented by his translator. See RICH, 1781, no. 14.

"One of the RAREST of the series of Revolutionary trials, with the RARE FOLDED PLAN. We are unable to trace the sale of more than one copy."—SABIN, Menzies Catalogue, no. 1741. (Mr. Menzies's copy brought $65.)

4136 [SAMPSON (DEBORAH)] The Female Review: or, Memoirs of an American young Lady; whose Life and Character are peculiarly distinguished — being a Continental Soldier, for nearly Three Years in the late American War, etc. With an Appendix . . . By a Citizen of Massachusetts [Herman Mann], pp. 258 (7). Two copies. 12° Dedham, N. and B. Heaton, for the Author, 1797

Neither copy is quite perfect, but in the hands of a good binder, one very fine copy can be made from the two. One wants the portrait, has lost a bit of one leaf (pp. 21, 22), and part of the last leaf of subscribers' names; but is, in other respects, the preferable copy. The other is larger, has a good impression of the PORTRAIT, though it needs mending and mounting, and has the additional leaf of subscribers' names: but several leaves are injured, more or less, and the volume shows marks of having been much used.

"Chalmers, speaking of Tickell, says, 'That which raised him to immediate celebrity was his admirable political pamphlet, called Anticipation; in which, with the most successful humour, he imitated the manner of the principal speakers in Parliament, and defeated the arguments of the opposition by pre-occupying them.'"

8° London, for I. Almon, 1768

"In Col. Aspinwall's catalogue," says RICH, "this pamphlet is stated to have been written by Thomas Hollis;" and the note has led a good many catalogue-makers into error. The book was undoubtedly printed for Hollis, or at his instance. The volume contains the Massachusetts Petition to the King, of Jan. 20, 1768; with the Letters of the House of Representatives to the Earl of Shelburne, Gen. Conway, Lord Camden, the Earl of Chatham, and others — most of which were written by Samuel Adams; the "supposed libel" on Gov. A remarkable work! not less CURIOUS than RARE. The author has endeavored to "portray, in detail, the various scenes,.. in a poetical narration, illustrated in prose, moralized and brought home to the senses of all, from the aged to the youth." The greater part of the volume is devoted to the Revolution, beginning at page 153.

All these pieces, with the few exceptions noted, were printed in the year 1800. Those marked with a star (*) are UNCUT. An obelisk (†) shows that the Farewell Address is appended to the Sermon or Oration. A double obelisk (‡) marks those which are separately bound, or half-bound, in calf or morocco, neat. The bracketed titles in small type are introduced only for the purpose of reference to bound volumes under other numbers of the Catalogue.

As Dr. Hough's excellent "Bibliographical List" is in the hands of, or readily accessible to every collector, it has not been thought necessary to give more than the briefest indication of the titles. These are distinguished by bolder type, when the copy is the only one known to Dr. Hough, or is one of only two referred to by him, in public or private collections. The titles of some others, of less remarkable rarity, yet VERY SCARCE, are printed in SMALL CAPITALS.

These Orations, etc., 170 in number (exclusive of the bracketed titles) are arranged in eight parcels, Twenty in each, and one parcel (No. 4239), of Ten. The Auctioneers RESERVE THE OPTION OF OFFERING THE ENTIRE COLLECTION, with, or without, the three volumes of collected Orations, Nos. 4228, 4229, and 4230, IN ONE LOT, by the parcel, volume, or single piece, as may be decided at the time of the sale.

Dedicated (April 22, 1800) to the Lord Mayor of London, the R. Hon. H. C. Combe.

The FIRST EDITION: RARE. As Condie's "Biographical Memoirs" were protected by copyright, and Corry's offered free plunder to piratical publishers, a great number of editions of it, and of chap-books manufactured from it, were printed in this country in the first quarter of the century,—in very few of which, after the First, mention is made of the author. The first sentence of the Life identifies these reprints: "In the history of man, we contemplate with peculiar satisfaction," etc.

This work was copyrighted, and the preface, dated at Baltimore, Jan. 1, 1813, is signed J. K.; but the Life begins with the familiar "In the history of man, we contemplate with peculiar satisfaction," etc. It is not, however, merely a reprint of Corry's Life. Besides other additions, it contains a selection of Eulogies and Funeral Orations, including Dr. John M. Mason's Oration in New York, and Major Thomas Morrell's Sermon in Baltimore, Feb. 22, 1800.

"Uw schepping zonk—uw roem bleef leven,
Een roem, dien de eeuwen schatting geven,
Schoon volk bij volk van de aard verdwijn';
Maar wat gij Sparta waart, voor dezen,
Zal Washington voor 't menschdom wezen,

There is a Portrait on the Title-page (after no known original, by an anonymous engraver). The preface is dated, October, 1813. In a burlesque "petition or prayer" to George III., said to have been adopted by the federal leaders of the "Benevolents," a party nickname is introduced which has generally been understood to be of more recent origin:

"What though the Pious SILVER GREYS
Once more have tried the storm to raise,
And bells have toll'd, and windows broke,
The people will not wear the yoke."

The quotation is at Dr. J. R. Bartlett's service for the next edition of his Dictionary of Americanisms.

A fresh, clean copy of an EXTREMELY RARE tract. For an account of the controversy of which it made part, see PROUD'S History, vol. II., pp. 177–183. "The managers, or chief actors, in this controversy, were principally the Governor [Sir William Keith] and David Lloyd [the Chief Justice], on the one side, and on the other, James Logan, the Secretary, and agent to the Proprietary's family." Mr. Logan begins his "Antidote" with mention of "an extraordinary step in Politicks having been made here last winter"—alluding to Governor Keith's disregard of his instructions, in declaring "that he should pass no laws, nor transact any thing of moment, relating to the public affairs, without the advice and approbation of the Council." "A letter from Sir William Keith . . to Mr. James Logan, . . on occasion of Mr. Logan's having sent to Sir William a copy of his Printed Paper called the Antidote," was printed by Andrew Bradford, the same year.

PREFACE.

The Third Part of the catalogue of Mr. Brinley's library is now offered to the public. It comprises 1717 lots, and about twenty-seven hundred titles. A list of some of the rarest and most important works, is subjoined. Among them will be found several volumes of extraordinary rarity, any one of which would suffice to make the approaching sale noteworthy in the annals of bibliography.

First of the first, by double right of primogeniture, stands (No. 5839) the GUTENBERG or "MAZARINE" BIBLE, eldest-born of all the issue of the press; concerning which, see, in its place, a too-long note. Since that note was in type an imperfect copy of the Gutenberg Old Testament, only, has been sold at Sotheby's (Feb. 15th), for £760.

Next to the first-printed book of the Old World may be named one of the first books printed in the New (RIKEL, No. 5317); a volume as fresh and bright as it came from Juan Cromberger's press, in Mexico, in 1544, — a land-mark in typography, half-way from Gutenberg and the First Bible, to Stephen Daye and the Bay Psalm Book of 1640.

Then follows, only a few years later, from "the house of Juan Pablos," in the same city, the first edition of MOLINA'S Mexican Dictionary (No. 5771); a book so rare that even the indefatigable Ludewig doubted its existence, and of which only five extant copies are known to bibliography.

Next, in order of time, is (5682) ELIOT'S INDIAN BIBLE, represented not merely by a single or an ordinary copy, but by one of the first edition and of the "Royal" type (with the Dedication), in its well-preserved original binding; a well-known copy, described seventeen years ago as "the crowning glory" of Mr. John Allan's library; and two fine copies of the revised second edition of 1680–85, one of which (5683) formerly belonged to Gov. Stoughton of Massachusetts, the other to Jonathan Edwards.

Rarer even than Eliot's, in either edition, is (5791) SAUR'S GERMAN BIBLE of 1743, the First Bible printed in America in a European language; and scarcely less rare (5800), its third edition, of 1776.

Of other exceptional rarities, the two editions of BERNARD ROMANS'S History of Florida (4365–6), and (5531) a copy — in fact two copies of INCREASE MATHER'S Brief History of the War with the Indians, Boston, 1676, will not escape the observation of book-lovers.

Like its predecessors, the Third Part of the catalogue will be found rich in First Works and First Editions. Mr. Brinley's collection of Bibles, for instance, though small in number of volumes, includes not only the first printed Bible, and the first American edition (Eliot's), but the first Pennsylvania (Saur's), the first New Jersey (5808), the first New York (5809), the first Connecticut (5825), the first Quarto and Folio (5809) editions; the first Greek Testament (5820), and the first Hebrew Bible (5829) printed in this country; and many of the first editions of the Bible and parts of the Bible in various languages of the American Indians.

The catalogue is not less rich in the extent and completeness of special collections: such as that of American Biography and Personal History, Nos. 5087–5302 (to be supplemented, hereafter, by more than twelve hundred Pamphlets); of the Military and Naval History of the United States, especially, the history of the last War with Great Britain, 1812–14; of works relating to the American Indians, and their Languages (among which the very rare Mexican imprints deserve special mention); of early American Music; and of American versions of the Psalms, and Hymns (of which about a hundred volumes remain to be catalogued in the Fourth Part); and, not the least remarkable, the collection of New-England Primers and Catechisms, which is, probably, unequalled in any public or private library.

When the Second Part of this catalogue was published, last spring, it was hoped that the Third and Fourth would be printed before the end of the year. This was found to be impossible. The general arrangement of the Fourth (and last) Part is completed, and a portion of the copy is already in the hands of the printers. It will comprise small collections in Law, Medicine, Agriculture, and other Arts and Sciences, and Bibliography: and larger collections, on Episcopacy and the history of the Episcopal Church in the United States; the Methodists, Baptists, and other denominations; Education, including early School Books; Chap Books; American Poetry and the Drama; General Literature, including early American editions of English authors; Classified Pamphlets; ADDENDA to Parts First and Second, and Duplicates; Broadsides, Maps and Prints, etc.

A large and fine copy of this EXTREMELY RARE volume. "No copy has been found with either of the whole-sheet Maps, and all are more or less deficient in the number of Plates referred to in the title page. From the arrangement and tenor of the title, as well as from the sense of the 'Advertisement' at the end of the volume, we are clearly of opinion that it was the Author's design to distribute the 'twelve copper plates, and two whole sheet maps,' throughout the two volumes into which he intended to divide the work." — Menzies' Catalogue, no. 1722.

The second volume was never published : and in copies of the work issued in 1776 (see the following number) "Vol. I." disappears from the title-page. The copperplates were designed and engraved by the author. They are (1) Frontispiece, Vol. I. (2) Dedication "To John Ellis Esqr.," the naturalist, "Agent for the Province of West Florida." (3) Avena aquatica Sylvestris (Wild Oats), facing p. 31. (4) "Characteristick Chicasaw Head," p. 59. (5) Characteristick Chactaw Busts, p. 62. (6) Treatment of the dead, by the Chactaws, p. 89. (7) Characteristick head of a Creek War Chief, p. 92. Maps in the Appendix : (8) Entrance of Tampa Bay, p. lxxviii ; (9) Pensacola Bay, p. lxxxi ; (10) Mobile Bar, p. lxxxv.

In January, 1798, he wrote to Oliver Wolcott: "Mr. Monroe, I am told, appears in a voluminous work! . . A writer under the signature of Scipio, will, I conceive, work him pretty well. Who is Scipio? I am fishing for no secrets, but if the author is known, or conjectured on good grounds, I should like to know who he is." Wolcott replied: "I have good grounds for believing Mr. Tracy to be the author of 'Scipio'; but this is not, and I believe will not be generally known."

RARE. The author was a First Lieutenant in the Royal Regiment of Artillery, and had been appointed Judge-Advocate by General Gage, to whom he dedicates his book. "No author, I believe," he says, "has ever wrote on Courts-Martial before, though something on that subject was much wanting for the Guidance of Officers who may be employed on that duty; therefore, if this Treatise has no other merit, it may certainly claim that of being new."

A list of Subscribers (6 pp.) is appended, which is of interest, as giving the full names and rank of nearly all the British officers serving in America in 1769.

With the book-plate of the Emperor Maximilian; no. 2667 of the Catalogue Andrade, where it is described as a "volume D'UNE RARETE EXTRAORDINAIRE qui est regardé comme le SECOND LIVRE imprimé en Mexique. EXEMPLAIRE MAGNIFIQUE."

The copy is really "magnificent,"—bright and clean as when it first came from the press of Juan Cromberger, three hundred and thirty-six years ago—almost a hundred years before the Bay Psalm Book was printed at Cambridge.

Its title to be reckoned the second book printed in America has been questioned, some bibliographers maintaining that a press was established in Mexico as early as 1541, but as to its EXTRAORDINARY RARITY—or the interest which attaches to it as ONE OF THE EARLIEST PRODUCTIONS OF THE PRESS IN AMERICA, there can be no difference of opinion.

Le mien, est de démontrer que rien n'a dégénéré, au contraire" (p. 15).

Some of the author's observations are, certainly, "curieuses": see, in Chap. VII. his "polissoneries philosophiques" (pp. 56–62) in reply to DePauw's assertions of the moral and physical inferiority of the Americans.

5356 APES. A Son of the Forest. The Experience of Wm. Apes, a Native of the Forest, comprising a Notice of the Pequod Tribe of Indians. Written by himself. hf. bd. 18° New York, 1829

Apes was a humbug. He claimed to be "a descendant of one of the principal chiefs of the Pequod Tribe so well known in that part of American history called King Philip's War. This tribe inhabited a part of Connecticut and lived . . in the town of Groton, and was commanded by King Philip." The story helps us to estimate the value of Indian "tradition," so termed. The Pequod tribe was blotted out about forty years before "King Philip's war," and neither King Philip nor his tribe (the Wampanoags) ever lived in or near Connecticut. Apes had, probably, some Narragansett blood; his father was a half-breed, he says; and he was born in Coleraine, Mass. He certainly was not a "Pequod."

The name of the author of this explication of the Dighton Rock inscription appears only on the binding: "Dammartin. Pierre de Taunston. Paris." It seems to have been written between 1840 and 1850. The author regards the inscribed rock, as "a fragment of an oriental celestial planisphere, or as an astronomical theme for the 25th of December, at midnight, the epoch of the winter solstice"; and infers that it is "a monument of some nation foreign to America."

This account of Capt. Cresap's life, and services in "Dunmore's War," was written in refutation of the charges made against him by Mr. Jefferson (in the Notes on Virginia,) of the murder of Logan's family, and of the statements in Dr. Doddridge's account of Dunmore's War. The author had been from boyhood an inmate of Capt. Cresap's family, and married his widow, in 1781.

5528 — A Narrative of the Indian Wars, etc., sheep, nice copy.
12° Brattleborough, W. Fessenden, 1814

5529 LOUDON (Archibald) A | Selection, | of Some | of the most interesting | Narratives, | of | Outrages, Committed | by the | Indians, | in | their Wars, | with the White People. | Also, | An Account of their Manners, Customs, Traditions, | Religious Sentiments, Modes of Warfare, etc. | Compiled from the best Authorities. | 2 vols., pp. (12), 5–355; (4), 13–269, levant red morocco extra, filleted sides, ins. borders, g. e. (Bedford). sm. 12° Carlisle, A. Loudon, 1808, 1811

A SURPASSINGLY FINE copy of this "RAREST of books on American history." In condition, it leaves to the most fastidious and exacting of collectors nothing to be desired. The binding is in Mr. Bedford's best style.

For the collation, see Field's Indian Bibliography, p. 248, — which, by the way, omits mention of the very curious wood-engraving of Delaware "hieroglyphics," on p. 324 of Vol. I.

5530 LOUDON (Arch.) A Selection of Some of the most interesting Narratives, etc. ANOTHER COPY. 2 vols., polished blue calf, extra gilt, g. e. (W. Pratt). sm. 12° Carlisle, A. Loudon, 1808, 1811

A BEAUTIFUL COPY, but, — by fault of the original binder — it wants a signature (pp. 17–28) of Vol. I. With it is an extra copy of Vol. I. (in the original binding) to supply the missing pages; the three volumes will be sold as two.

5531 MATHER (INCREASE) A Brief History of the Warr With the Indians in New-England, (From June 24, 1675, when the first English-man was murdered by the Indians, to August 12, 1676, when Philip, alias Metacomet, the Principal Author and Beginner of the Warr, was slain,) Wherein the Grounds, Beginning, and Progress of the Warr, is summarily expressed. Together with a Serious Exhortation to the Inhabitants of that Land. By Increase Mather, Teacher of a Church of Christ, in Boston in New-England . . . Narrative (2 copies) pp. (6), 51, (1 blk.), Postcript, 8; Exhortation, pp. (2), 26. 3 vols. sold as 2 vols.

sm. 4° Boston, John Foster over against the Sign of the Dove, 1676

These two imperfect copies of an EXCEEDINGLY RARE book, are offered, as they were put together by Mr. Brinley to be sent to Mr. F. Bedford for binding, with the following note: —

"One best copy to be made, which may be the largest, and cleanest (if possible); but at least let it be genuine throughout. The Second copy [of the "Brief History"] to have the missing portions replaced by careful facsimile, — the missing portions being a piece of the title, pp. 15, 16, and a few words at the end. . I do not care about preserving any of the MSS. notes, if a cleaner piece of work can be made by washing them off: but as they are nearly contemporary, I think they cannot be successfully removed . . I rely more upon the judgment of Mr. Bedford than I do upon my own . . . The "Serious Exhortation," is mentioned in the title-page of the "History," but is rarely found with it. I wish to have it bound uniform with the best copy of the 'History.'"

The larger copy of the "Brief History," formerly belonged to the Rev. Zechariah Symmes, of Charlestown (Harv. Coll., 1657,) whose autograph is on the margin of p. 1, and the underscoring and marginal notes are doubtless his. This copy was interleaved by the late Samuel G. Drake, and contains several manuscript notes in his hand.

The second best copy of the "History" is imperfect, as before mentioned; but the last page, of the "Postcript," with the Errata, is complete, and supplies the slight deficiency of the other copy.

The "Serious Exhortation" is a GOOD COPY, complete throughout (except a name cut from upper margin of Title) and is handsomely half bound, in black morocco.

The three volumes will be sold as two; enabling the purchaser to perfect one copy of one of the RAREST OF AMERICAN BOOKS, and, with the aid of the facsimilist and binder, to secure a second complete and desirable copy of the "Brief History," — of which Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, no. 46,640) observes that "two copies only are known: Mr. Brinley's and one in England." One of Mr. Brinley's copies was sold with the First Part of his library, in 1879 (No. 948). In the hurried preparation of the Catalogue the other two were overlooked.

5532 METCALF (Samuel L.) A Collection of some of the most interesting Narratives of Indian Warfare in the West, containing an Account of the Adventures of Col. Daniel Boone, . . . also, an Account of the Manners and Customs of the Indians, etc.; . . added, an Account of the Expeditions of Gen'ls Harmer, Scott, Wilkinson, St. Clair, & Wayne, pp. 270, fine portrait of Boone inserted. Lexington, Wm. G. Hunt, 1821 — A Narrative of the Captivity and Sufferings of Benj. Gilbert and his Family, in 1780. Philadelphia, Jos. Crukshank, 1784. Two in 1 vol., both large and fine copies; a selection of newspaper cuttings inserted (in an envelope), half bound, neat. 8°

Metcalf's Collection has, (as Mr. Field observes) "become as rare as the works it sought to preserve from oblivion. Every succeeding year brings with it an augmentation of the price at which it is sold . . . It will probably always preserve its rank among rare and costly books." — Ind. Bibliography, p. 274. Mr. Brinley's copy (formerly E. D. Ingraham's) is exceptionally large and fine, nearly UNCUT.

The FIRST EDITION of Gilbert's Narrative is scarcely less rare.

Israel*, 1831
"Of this scarce book, very few copies are complete or in good condition . . . Most of the copies lack the table of contents." The work "is considered by Western antiquarians the best collection of frontier life and Indian warfare, that has been printed." — FIELD. This copy (like the following, and three other copies I have seen in their original binding and in good condition) has no table of contents, and the make-up of the last signature — which has four blank pages after the Advertisement — shows that the addition of this table, in a portion of the edition, was an after-thought. "One of the best collections of narratives of frontier life and Indian Warfare. It ranks favorably with 'Doddridge's Notes,' and is even more scarce than that work." — THOMPSON'S Bibl. of Ohio.

In the original smooth dark blue morocco binding, sides fileted and panel-gilt, gilt edges. Size of leaf, $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches by $5\frac{7}{8}$, full. In a Solander case of maroon morocco, lettered.

At the head of the title is the (partially defaced) autograph of Sir Wm. Ashhurst, who was a prominent member (and became Governor) of the Corporation for Propagating the Gospel in New England.

The Allan copy has long been known to collectors, as one of the largest, finest, and most desirable of all known "Royal" or Dedication copies. Only twenty copies of this description were sent to England, by order of the Corporation, for presentation to the Universities and to such persons as the Governor of the Corporation should think fit. These were bound in England, and probably in uniform style.

One blank leaf; Title (Indian), 1 leaf; Old Test., A to Ppppp, in fours; names of the Books, 1 leaf, recto blank; N. Test., Title (as above), 1 leaf, verso blank; Text, A2 to (recto of) Kk 2; Psalms in Metre, 53 n. n., Kk 3 to Yy 4; Catechism, 1 leaf.

Elegantly bound (by Mr. F. Bedford) in levant black morocco, extra, filleted and paneled sides, richly ornamented, gilt edges, double vellum guard-leaves. Size of page, $7\frac{1}{4}$ by $5\frac{5}{8}$ inches.

On the verso of the blank leaf preceding the Title, are the autographs of two former owners, WILLIAM STOUGHTON (Chief Justice and Lieut.-Governor of Massachusetts, died, 1701,) and the Rev. JOHN DANFORTH, 1713. (The latter married the neice of Gov. Stoughton.)

A VERY FINE COPY, remarkably free from stain and set-off. Only the first few leaves show any evidence of having been used. The head of the title-leaf and of the first leaf of text have been mended (to the width of about a quarter of an inch.)

While the First Edition of Eliot's Bible is the more attractive to collectors of rare Americana, and deserves the pre-eminence that is accorded to it, as a monument of early American typography and as the first version of the Bible printed in the New World, it should not be forgotten that, to students of the American languages and to the general philologist, the Second is the more valuable; and that all critical references to Eliot's version are, or should be, made to this revised and corrected edition.

ELIOT'S BIBLE. SECOND EDITION.
JONATHAN EDWARDS'S COPY.

5684 — Mamusse | Wunneetupanatamwe | UP-BIBLUM GOD | etc. 4° Cambridge, 1685, 1680

Test., 1 leaf, verso blank; Text, A 2 to recto of Kk 2; Psalms in metre, 53 leaves, n. n. Kk 3 to Yy 4. Size of page, 7¼ by 5⅛ inches.

In levant red morocco extra gilt, sides and back elaborately tooled, in an elegant design, gauffered gilt edges, vellum linings and guard-leaves. The binding is one of Mr. Bedford's master-pieces. The volume has been skillfully cleaned throughout, the margins of some short and worn leaves extended, and the deficiencies, if any were found, are supplied in facsimile so perfect as to escape detection. It will be observed, from the collation, that by the binder's mistake, the "Catechism" which belongs at the end of the volume has been inserted at the end of the Old Testament.

5694 — MANUSCRIPT BOOK OF PRAYERS, etc., in the Mareschit (or Maliseet) and Caniba dialects.

A little volume of 82 pages (measuring 5 by 2½ inches) written by some French missionary to the Abnakis. It is complete and well-preserved, though its pages bear traces of long and frequent use. It formerly belonged to Dr. John Pickering, to whom it was presented by Bishop (and Cardinal) Cheverus.

It contains "Prière du Matin, en Marichit," "Cantique," "Prière du Soir, en Caniba," "Prière avant la Confession," "Interrogation pour la Confession," "Prières avant [et apres] la Communion," "Catechisme," "Manière de Baptiser," etc.

The mission for which this manual was compiled included Indians of at least two tribes, the Canibas, of whose principal dialect Rasles has given us a vocabulary, and the Etchemins and Mareschites, on and near the St. John's River. "We read in the relations of the Jesuits, that the Canibas, the Etchemins, and other Indians of different tribes lived together in one village," under the instruction of the missionary Fathers (Maurault, Hist. des Abenakis, 9); and it is not improbable that this manual contains translations made early in the 17th century, and preserved in manuscript copies by successive missionaries.

 This will be sold with the privilege of the following number (5695).

5695 — (MANUSCRIPT) Prieres des Sauvages Abnakis de St. Francois.
Legibly and neatly written, on 32 pages (7 by 3½ inches), clean and well-preserved. On the first blank-leaf (of which only a portion remains) Mr. Brinley has written. "Purchased at the sale of the Library of Hon. John Pickering, Boston, 1846. This MS. was presented to Mr. Pickering by Bishop Cheverus."

The writing resembles that of the preceding volume and is probably by the same hand; but it shows that the writer has become more familiar both with the language and with the pen. The character used by the French missionaries for ou or English w (8) is employed, and the nasals are marked as in Rasles's Dictionary, by n̄. In addition to the prayers contained in the earlier manual, it has the Litanies of the Virgin, and of the Holy Name of Jesus, the Psalms and Antiphons for Vespers, and the hymns "Lucis Creator" and "Veni Creator."

Title, 1 leaf; The Order for Morning Prayer daily throughout the year, pp. 1–16; The Litany, pp. 17–24; The Church Catechism, pp. 1–9; [Various] Prayers, pp. 10–18.

EXTREMELY RARE. It may have been printed at the instance of the Rev. Dr. Eleazer Wheelock, or by the Boston Commissioners of the (Scotch) Society for Propagating Christian Knowledge, for the use of the missionaries and school-masters sent from New England to the Six Nations.

Wm. Weyman was employed by Sir Wm. Johnson, in 1762, to print a new edition of the Mohawk Prayer-Book, and began the work early in 1763, under the supervision of the Rev. Dr. Barclay. Its progress was interrupted by the death of Dr. Barclay, in 1764, and less than half the book was printed when Weyman died, in July, 1768. In the meantime several missionaries had gone from New England to the Six Nations; Mr. Cornelius Bennett, a catechist of the Episcopal church, was teaching school among the Mohawks in 1764: Mr. C. J. Smith (accompanied by young Joseph Brant) and the Rev. Samuel Kirtland went, the same year, from Lebanon, as missionaries to the same field—sent by the Boston Commissioners, and several others were preparing themselves at Lebanon for this mission. This Prayer-Book and Catechism was probably printed for the use of these missionaries and their Indian scholars. It seems to be a reprint, so far as it goes, of the first edition (Wm. Bradford, 1715), omitting the "Several Chapters of the Old and New Testament"; and founded, like that edition, on the translations made "by Mr. Freeman, a very worthy Calvinist minister." See Humphreys' Hist. Account, p. 302.

THE GUTENBERG BIBLE.

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED WITH TYPES.

5839 The BIBLE, in Latin; with the prologue of Saint Jerome. The First Edition. Gothic type: hundreds of illuminated capital letters, brilliantly colored and decorated, many of them heightened with gold. 2 vols. In the original binding, thick oak boards covered with stamped calf, ornamented brass corners and center-pieces, with bosses; many leaves with uncut edges; measuring $15\frac{7}{8}$ by $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches, on the leaf.
folio [MENTZ, JOANNES GUTENBERG, 1450–55?]

Without titlepages, pagination, or signatures: 641 leaves printed in double columns, 42 lines to a full column; the initials and rubrics, in manuscript, throughout. The first volume contains 324 leaves, (of which one is in facsimile) and ends with the Psalms; the second has 317 leaves (sixteen in facsimile).

A copy on vellum in the National Library in Paris, has at the end of the second volume a note, that it was "illuminated, bound, and completed, on the day of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary (Aug. 15), 1456, by Henricus Albch, alias Cremer."

"The honour of producing the first, and as many think, the most perfect book, is now ascribed to Gutenberg alone, Fust not coming in for a share of the credit of the invention until after his famous lawsuit in 1455, when the Bible had been finished. We call it, therefore, the GUTENBERG BIBLE, and have no sympathy for any French name given to it simply because a copy found in a Paris library had the honour of being described by a French bookseller." — H. STEVENS (in Caxton Celebration Catalogue). It was formerly known as the "Mazarine Bible," from the fact that the earliest published description of it, was based on a copy discovered by DeBure, in the Mazarine Library.

"Some copies, which may be called a SECOND ISSUE, have 40 lines on each of the first eight pages, forty-one on the ninth, and the rest forty-two. In the later issue, the three red lines at the beginning, are in type and not in manuscript, as in the 42 line issue." The distinctions between the two issues are pointed out by Mr. B. Quaritch, in his description of the Perkins copy (priced, 3000 guineas,) in his General Catalogue, no. 17545. It may be added, that, in the first volume of the Brinley copy, the beginning of the prologue to the Pentateuch (recto of 4th leaf), of the book of Genesis (recto of 5th leaf), and the title and finis (Incipit and Explicit) of each of the books from Genesis to Ruth, inclusive, are rubricated in manuscript, not printed.

Mr. Brinley's copy was purchased in 1873, through the agency of Mr. H. Stevens, in London. It had been discovered, a few years previously, in the Archiv of the Predigerkirche of Erfurt. A very full and accurate description of it was published in the Serapeum (Aug. 15th and 31st, 1870; pp. 230, 241, ff.) by Dr. Bruno Stübel of Leipsic, who had the rare opportunity of collating "the new-found forty-two-line copy" with two other copies, one from the Munich Library, the other from the Library of Leipsic.

The Gutenberg Bible has, as Dibdin remarks in his description of Earl Spencer's copy, been "justly praised for the strength and beauty of the paper, the exactness of the register, the lustre of the ink, and the general splendor and magnitude of the volumes." In Asher's announcement, in 1873, the Brinley copy is claimed to be "the most beautiful of all known copies on paper. It is not only the tallest, and almost uncut, but it is of remarkable freshness and purity, and, though it has never been subjected to washing, is without the least stain. . . One sees by the costliness of its binding and by the beauty of its painted initials, heightened with gold and decorated in arabesques, that it was intended for the library of some prince or great nobleman. This exceptional excellence brought it ill fortune; for some barbarian, or crazed amateur, has taken from it a few leaves, doubtless for the sake of their capital letters." By extraordinary good luck some ancient paper was found, like that on which the Bible was printed, and the missing leaves were reproduced in photolithographic facsimile, with such success that it is not easy to distinguish them.

The copy is so nearly uncut that many of the manuscript cues for the rubricator, are preserved at the extreme upper margins of the leaves.

Very few errors of the press have been discovered in this first edition of the Bible. One, in Isaiah xxxvii. 20, "ponā circulū ergo in auribus [for naribus] tuis," has been noticed by Dibdin and Pettigrew. Another, in the beginning of Psalm xxx. (xxxi. of the English Bible), has been corrected in the Brinley copy, probably by the rubricator, by marking a caret in the text and writing the omitted word "speravi" in the margin.

This is the first time—and it is not unlikely to be the last—that a copy of the First Printed Book is offered at public sale, in this country.

In 1769, a vellum copy brought, at the Gaignat sale, 2100 francs: in 1815, the same copy, at the McCarthy-Reagh sale, was purchased by Mr. Grenville, for 6260 francs. Mr. Perkins's (vellum) copy, with two leaves in facsimile, was bought by him in 1825, from Messrs. G. & W. Nicol, for £504: in 1873, it was sold at £3,400. Of the best known paper copies, that belonging to the Duke of Sussex was bought at Perry's sale, for £168; was sold in 1841, for £190; and in 1858, at the Bishop of Cashel's sale, for £596. The Perkins copy—the only one which came into the market for sixteen years after 1858—was purchased at Sir M. M. Sykes's sale, for £199.10; and was sold in 1873, for £2,690. At every sale, the advance in price had been marked: and the commercial value of copies has been at least quintupled in the last thirty years. What may it reach in the next fifty?

Pearl type. Title engraved, by L. Lucas, with "The names and order of all the Books," on the verso. This is probably a Dutch counterfeit of the "Pearl Bible" printed by Field in 1653.—H. STEVENS, in Caxton Celebration Catalogue, no. 1127. The genuine edition has some curious errors which have been corrected in the counterfeit: e. g. "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall inherit the kingdom of God?"—in 1 Cor. vi. 9: "Neither yield ye your members as instruments of righteousness unto sin," Rom. vi. 13; and the famous error in Acts vi. 3,—"whom ye may appoint," etc.,—for introducing which into the text, it was rumored, "that Field received a present of £1500. from the Independents." The fact is, however, that Field merely copied the error from an earlier edition printed with the imprimatur of Archbishop Laud.

5865 The | NEW-ENGLAND | PRIMER | Enlarged. | For the more easy attaining the true | Reading of English. | To which is added, | The Assembly of Divines | Catechism. | Boston: Printed by T. Fleet, | and Sold by the Booksellers, 1737.

40 leaves, n. n. On the recto of the first leaf, an awesome woodcut of "The POPE, or Man of Sin," fearfully and wonderfully made: on the reverse, the head of "King George the Second," facing the Title. The familiar rhymes—from "In Adam's Fall | We sinned all," to "Zaccheus he | Did climb the Tree | His Lord to see,"—with their twenty-four illustrative woodcuts, are on leaves 6 and 7. Mr. John Rogers burns at Smithfield, "his Wife, with nine small Children, and one at her Breast, following him to the Stake," on the 16th leaf.

— The New-England Primer Improved. For the more easy attaining the true reading of English. To which is added, The Assembly of Divines, and Mr. Cotton's Catechism. Boston: Printed for, and Sold by John Perkins, in Union-Street. 1768.

40 leaves, n. n. (A to E) in eights. Cotton's Catechism (entitled "Spiritual Milk for American Babes. Drawn out of the Breasts of both Testaments") was printed in the earliest editions of the Primer, but was omitted in that of 1737: as was also "A Dialogue between Christ, Youth and the Devil," which is restored in this edition. The copy perhaps wants a leaf preceding the title.

— The New-England Primer Improved ... To which is added, The Assembly of Divines Catechism, &c. Boston, William McAlpine, 1770.

Sigs. A to E8, in eights. A leaf preceding the title has, on the recto, the head of "King George the Third Crown'd September 22d, 1761, Whom God long Preserve"; on the reverse, "A Divine Song of Praise" by Dr. Watts. This edition agrees page for page with that of 1768, but is in larger type and on larger paper.

— The AMERICAN Primer Improved, etc. Concord: Printed and sold by N. Coverly, . . 1776.

40 leaves, n. n. (A to E8) in eights. On the first leaf, a head, which evidently was intended for that of King George III., serves for "The Hon. John Hancock, Esquire." In other respects, this is a reprint of the Primers of 1768 and 1770.

— The same. Boston: Printed by Edward Draper, . . and sold by John Boyle, 1777.

40 leaves (A to E) in eights. On the first leaf, recto, "The Honorable JOHN HANCOCK, Esq. President of the American Congress," displaces King George.

— The New-England Primer, Enlarged and Improved: or an easy and pleasant Guide to the Art of Reading. Adorned with Cuts. Also the Catechism. Newburyport: Printed and sold by John Mycall, n. d. [1790.]

40 leaves, n. n. (A. to E8) in eights. This differs in many respects from any of the preceding editions. There are more woodcuts, some of which are copied from Isaiah Thomas's "Royal Primer" of 1785. Mr. Cotton's Catechism is omitted. [The first two leaves of the Westminster Catechism are misplaced by the binder.]

6 vols. sm. 16° (32°), elegantly bound in best levant brown morocco, backs full-gilt, sides filleted and panel-gilt, with centre ornaments, g. e. (F. Bedford); in a str. grained olive morocco Solander case, lined with velvet, and lettered.

It is unnecessary to remark on the EXTREME RARITY of early editions of this Primer,—which has been called "the little Bible of New England." The late Mr. George Livermore, one of the most persevering and successful collectors of early Catechisms and Primers, in one of a series of articles on the origin and history of the N. E. Primer (published in 1849,) said: "I have not been able to find a copy of the work bearing an earlier date than the year 1775 . . Nor have I seen a person who has seen a copy of an earlier date."

5866 The New-England Primer (and others); 1784–1802: —

— The New-England Primer Improved, etc. Boston: Printed and sold by the Booksellers, 1784.

32 leaves, n. n. (A to D8) in eights. Follows the standard editions, but omits Mr. Cotton's Catechism. On the first page a woodcut head of "General Washington," in an oval, surrounded by military trophies.

— The Royal Primer; or, An Easy and Pleasant Guide to the Art of Reading. Adorned with Cuts, pp. 72. Worcester, Mass., Isaiah Thomas, 1784.

This has little in common with the New England Primer, but may have been a more attractive book to some of the boys and girls of its day. It contents "A short Scripture Catechism," but not the Westminster Assembly's, nor Mr. Cotton's. There are woodcuts of animals and birds, and in illustration of Bible stories; and the cuts are far superior to those in earlier editions of the N. E. Primer. It is probably a reprint of an English primer.

— The New-England Primer; much improved. Containing, A Variety of Easy Lessons, for attaining the true reading of English. 40 leaves, n. n. (A and B, in twelves; C, D, in eights.) Philadelphia, T. Dobson, 1797.

No woodcuts, except one of the burning of John Rogers (in which, by the way, Mrs. Rogers's "nine small children and one at her breast" may be fairly enumerated). A very pretty edition.

— The American Primer. Improved. Or, an easy and pleasant Guide to the Art of Reading. Adorned with Cuts. To which is added, The Assembly of Divine's Catechism. Medford: Nathaniel Coverly, 1798.

— The New-England Primer, Or, the first Step to The Art of Reading. To which are Added, The Shorter Catechism, And many Things proper for Children. Revised, Corrected, and Improved, pp. 79, cuts. Worcester, Isaiah Thomas, n. d. [1802]

A fresh clean copy of this handsome edition.

long 12° Boston, J. F[ranklin], for S. Gerrish, 1721

This is believed to be the FIRST MUSIC BOOK printed in this country. Coffin in his Annals of Newbury (p. 185) says it was first published in 1714. Hood (Hist. of Music in N. E., p. 65) says, "about the year 1712;" but adds, that "having never seen this work, he is unable to give any account of it, or its contents," having gained his only knowledge of it "from its advertisement on the blank page of the Rev. Mr. Symmes's discourse 'Concerning Prejudice in Matters of Religion,'"—which was published in 1722 (see, ante, No. 5882). The full title (or description) given in that advertisement, is: "A very plain and easy Introduction to the Art of Singing Psalm Tunes; With the Cantus or Trebles of Twenty eight Psalm Tunes, contrived in such a manner as that the Learner may attain the Skill of Singing them with the greatest ease and Speed imaginable. By the Rev. Mr. John Tufts." On the same page is advertised "The Grounds and Rules of Musick Explained," by the Rev. Thomas Walter (No. 5886). Both were "to be sold by Samuel Gerrish."

This copy, though not quite complete, is in good condition, and retains half of its original marbled wrapper. The Introduction occupies four pages, with the imprint (as above) in colophon. The number of Tunes is sixteen. In printing them letters are used upon the staff instead of notes; F, S, L, M, for Fa, Sol, La, Mi, (see Hood, p. 66.) The Cantus (Treble) only is given. There are no bars, except for marking the end of the lines and verses.

5886 WALTER (Thomas) The | Grounds and Rules | of | Musick | Explained: Or, | An Introduction to the Art of Singing | by Note. | Fitted to the meanest Capacities. | . . Recommended by several Ministers. | sheep. obl. 8° Boston, J. Franklin, for S. Gerrish, 1721

Title, 1 leaf; Recommendatory Preface, signed by Increase and Cotton Mather and 13 other Ministers, 3 pp.; Explanation of Musical Characters, 1 p.; Instructions, etc., pp. 1–24 (wanting one leaf, pp. 7, 8); Rules for Tuning the Voice, 1 p.; Engraved Music, 15 pages. In this copy several additional tunes are scored, in manuscript.

VERY RARE. "The First music printed with bars, in America."—Hood, p. 77. "The tunes are composed in three parts only; and are made up of half and whole notes. . The harmony is full, rich, and correct, and the whole style, purely choral."

Hood had not seen this (first) edition, nor the edition of 1746, but took his title of the work from that of 1760–63, printed by B. Mecom.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and, if any dispute arise, between two or more bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down twenty-five per cent. on the dollar in part payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required; in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The Lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the vendors, on or before delivery; in default of which Messrs. GEO. A. LEAVITT & Co. will not hold themselves responsible, if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser.

4. The sale of any book, painting, engraving, or any other article, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. All articles are exposed for public exhibition one or more days, and are sold just as they are without recourse. All books are presumed to be perfect unless otherwise expressed, and are collated as far as practicable when catalogued; but the sale of any book or books cannot be invalidated on account of any stained, foxed, torn, mended, facsimile, written on, stamped, or short leaves of text, plates, maps, or diagrams, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All manuscripts and autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all pamphlets in lots or volumes, all single volumes or sets, will be sold with all their faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the number of volumes or pieces, or other errors of description.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

6. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. "Published with NOTES, to gratify the very respectable Assembly before whom it was delivered, and a Copy given, July, 1770."

This Sermon, by the "Blue Law" historian of Connecticut, is VERY SCARCE. The "Notes" are spicy, and, doubtless, were more gratifying to the "respectable Assembly," than to the Sons of Liberty; e. g. (p. 13): "America has the Honor of dealing in human Flesh; of plundering and extirpating the Aborigines of the Country; of stealing and receiving stolen Blacks from the coasts of Africa; of using them with more than Savage Barbarity, not under the same Pretence that Nimrod hunted Men, but under a pious Pretence of Christianizing and bestowing on them natural and civil Liberty;—glorious Pretence, but most infamously executed!"

By the first Presbytery of the Eastward, pp. 560, vii, (4), sound clean copy, sheep, VERY SCARCE. 16° Boston, N. Coverly, 1783

The reputed author of this volume, and the most prominent member of "the Presbytery of the Eastward," was the Rev. John Murray, a native of Ireland, who was, for a short time, pastor of the 2d Presb. Church in Philadelphia, and subsequently removed to Boothbay, Me., where this Presbytery was formed. In 1781, he became the successor of the Rev. Jona. Parsons, at Newburyport, Mass., where he died in 1793. Concerning his earlier and later troubles, see Sprague's Presb. Annals, I. 50, note.

A committee of the Presbytery was appointed to draw up a "testimony against errors," this first part of which was formally approved by them, as certified (Windham, May 21, 1783,) by Simon Williams, Clerk.

The Introduction gives "an impartial survey of the present times." Attention is directed to "the enormities of extravagance and sensuality.. The vanity of fickle and whimsical fashions, the monstrous deformities of dress, the luxury of the table and equipage, the fondness for ill-timed diversions, for frolics, balls, and gaming-tables," etc.

"In the year 1807, Richard McNemar, formerly a man of eminence in the Revival, in union with the Society, published a work entitled 'The Kentucky Revival.' It embraces, with a plenary account of this revival, a partial exposition of the tenets of Shakerism. Full of enthusiasm—full of fanaticism—withall, it breathes a little of the fire of native genius. This work, with the exception of a small sheet published in 1785, by Elder Joseph Meacham [JamesWhittaker], was THE FIRST by which the Society attempted to defend or promulgate its doctrines." — HASKETT, Shakerism Unmasked, p. 125.

These volumes are among the curiosities of American literature. They were illustrated, put in type, printed (in small editions), and bound, by the author. The woodcuts are certainly remarkable, but it was scarcely kind in Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, iv. 477), to characterize them as "amusing for their absurdity."

RARE and CURIOUS. The author—afterward the Rev. Dr. Myles Cooper, the successor of Dr. Johnson in the presidency of King's (Columbia) College, New York, and who was driven from the college and the country by the patriots in 1775—published this volume of poems the year after he received his degree at Oxford. "It is not likely"—as Mr. Duyckinck observes—"that he brought many copies of his Poems over for the use of the students and the eyes of sober Dr. Johnson of Connecticut... The taste of the age allowed publications then to gentlemen which the more delicate standard of the present day would reject."

The authoress was a sister of the convent of San Geronimo of Mexico, and her poems were very popular in New Spain. Bouterwek places her on a level with Lope de Vega for facility of invention and versification."—B. QUARITCH.

This, the third edition of her first published volume, contains nearly 80 pages (327–406) more than the preceding edition.

VERY RARE. For the full title, see SABIN'S Dictionary, no. 27586. After invoking the Muses, the author addresses

"—You bright sons of Harvard, where the Nine
And Great Apollo consecrate their Shrine,
For Wisdom fam'd, the rude Attempt excuse;
Accept an Off'ring from an Infant Muse,
That in Advent'rous Numbers, first would Sing
The Fam'd NASSAU, the Great, the Warlike King."

The general tone and spirit of the poem seem to indicate that the author was a native of England, not yet thoroughly at home in the land of his adoption : and I am strongly inclined to attribute it to FRANCIS KNAPP of Watertown, Mass.,—son of a captain in the British navy,—a graduate of St. John's college, Oxford, whose poetical address "to Mr. Pope, on his Windsor Forest," dated June 7, 1715, "announce a man of wit and taste." For what is known of Mr. Knapp and his writings, see Duyckinck, i. 72.

So rare has this little volume become, that in 1864, Mr. Light, its publisher, was sure that it had not been published by his house, and that Mr. Duyckinck's statement, that Mr. Thatcher had written such a memoir, was a mistake: and Mr. Charles Deane—who never fails to make diligent search—was unable to find a copy of it.

The Dramatis Personæ are Charles, by Mr. King (George III.); Joseph Surface, Lord Thane (Bute); Crabtree, Lord Rubicon (Mansfield); Moses, Lord Boreas (North), etc. In 1782 Robert Bell published "the real and genuine School for Scandal" (Sheridan's): see No. 7052.

Of the three editions of The Fall of British Tyranny, one (Providence) was unknown to Mr. Sabin, and I do not find it named in any catalogue. THOMAS (Hist. of Printing, ii. 79) says that John Douglass McDougall "printed in Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, 1775, and probably before that time, ... and had, previously .. worked in the printing house of Sarah Goddard and Company at Providence." It appears that he afterwards returned to Providence, and was located "on the West Side of the Great Bridge."

By G. Colman, Jun. As performed in Boston. 2d Boston ed., 1796 — The Farmer: a comic Opera. By J. O'Keefe. As performed at the Theatre in Boston. Belknap & Hall, 1794 — Love's Frailties: a Comedy. By T. Holcroft. N. Y., 1794 — The Young Quaker: a Comedy; as performed .. by the old American Company. Phila., 1794 — The Widow of Malabar: a Tragedy, as it is performed at .. Covent Garden: written by Mariana Starke: (with an Epilogue "written in America".) Phila., E. Story, n. d. [1791?] — The Haunted Tower, a comic Opera; by Mr. Cobb: as performed by the old American Company. Phila., 1794. 8 Plays, in 2 vols. 12°

"Slaves in Algiers" was Mrs. Rowson's "first dramatic effort;" and at its performance she played the leading part, Olivia.

In "New Spain," first performed at the Haymarket, July 16, 1790, the part of Alkmonoak (sic), played by Mr. Bannister, includes the song (p. 53) which subsequently became so popular in England and in this country, as "The Indian's Deathsong" or "Alknomook:"

"The sun sets in night and the stars shun the day,
But glory remains when their lights fade away," etc.

This song was very generally attributed to Philip Freneau, and was printed as his in Carey's American Museum, in 1787. Chambers—and afterwards Duyckinck (Cycl. Am. Lit., i. 341)—showed that it was included in the collected poems of Mrs. John Hunter, published in 1806. Who wrote this play of "New Spain"? Was the part of "Alkmonoak" conceived for and fitted to the "Death Song"—or was the song written for the part?

The epilogue to "The Widow of Malabar" was composed, jointly, by Col. David Humphreys and John Trumbull ("McFingal"),—the latter contributing 36 of the 78 lines; not by Trumbull solely, as Dunlap and Duyckinck have stated. This translation of the play (by Miss Starke) was substituted for the one by Humphreys which was played in Philadelphia in 1790, and for which the epilogue was written.

7052 The Irish Chief; or Patriot King: by F. Dobbs. 8° Phila., R. Bell, 1777 — The Real and Genuine School for Scandal, a Comedy; by Brinsley Sheridan. 8° Phila., R. Bell, 1782 — The Highland Reel: a comic Opera; by J. O'Keefe: as performed in London, and by the Old American Company, in New York, (with the cast, including Mrs. Hallam and Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkinson.) N. Y., 1794 — The Jew: or, Benevolent Hebrew; by Cumberland: as performed at the New Theatre, Philadelphia (with the cast), uncut, fresh copy. Phila., 1795 — The Stranger: transl. from Kotzebue (by A. S—k), uncut, but a name cut out of the title leaf. New York, 1799 — The Review; or the Wags of Windsor; by G. Colman: as performed at the N. Y. Theatre, uncut. New York, D. Longworth, 1804. 6 Plays. v. s.

The title of the "Real and Genuine" School for Scandal is explained by the fact that the title and the dramatis personæ of the play had been borrowed for a political satire, which was reprinted in Philadelphia in 1779 (see No. 7046). Sheridan's play was first performed, May 8, 1777: and, according to (Bohn's) Lowndes, was "first printed, Dublin, 1785," which was three years after Bell's edition was published.

That dance and song o'er patriot zeal prevail;
That whigs and tories (join'd by wayward chance)
Should hand in hand, lead on the sprightly dance," etc.
Sabin's Dictionary (no. 51110) gives a (skeleton) key to the dramatis personæ.

7183 — A New Gift for Children: containing Delightful and Entertaining Stories. . Fourth Edition, adorn'd with cuts, pp. 34, upper corners stained, uncut. 12° Boston, Fowle & Draper, 1762

Perhaps the RAREST of this collection of "juveniles." The illustrations include likenesses (?) of George the Third, and Queen Charlotte; a view of "Louisbourg demolish'd," which had previously adorned the title-pages of Almanacs; and several very remarkable original cuts.

7184 — The Famous Tommy Thumb's Little Story-Book; containing His Life and Surprising Adventures. To which are added Tommy Thumb's Fables, with Morals, and, at the end, pretty stories, that may be sung or told. Adorned with many curious Pictures, pp. 32, used. sm. 16° [Boston, John Boyle,] at the Printing Office in Marlborough Street, 1771

VERY RARE. The "pretty stories at the end" are some of those which pass for "Mother Goose's,"—"There was a man of Thessaly," "Three children sliding on the ice," "When I was a little boy," etc. The cuts are more than curious; particularly, the full-page frontispiece.

7185 — [Mother Goose's Melody; or Sonnets for the Cradle. In Two Parts. Part 1st, contains the most celebrated Songs and Lullabies of the old British Nurses, calculated to amuse Children and to excite (sic) them to Sleep. Part 2d, those of that sweet Songster and Nurse of Wit and Humour, Master William Shakespeare. Embellished with Cuts, and illustrated with Notes and Maxims, Historical, Philosophical, and Critical,] pp. 94, many wood-cuts, wants title. 32° [Worcester, Is. Thomas, 1786]

An EXTREMELY RARE and highly interesting little volume. Unfortunately, it has lost the title-leaf. In other respect it is in good condition. The title, as above, appears on the last leaf, in a list of books for children published by Isaiah Thomas, and it is found in a similar list at the end of "Goody Two Shoes," and others of the series, printed in 1786 and 1787.

It was doubtless a reprint of an English edition. I can hardly believe that it has escaped the bibliographers— and especially, the bibliographers of SHAKSPERIANA,—yet I have not succeeded in finding any mention of "Mother Goose's Melody. Part II. Containing the Lullabies of Shakespear" which—has a separate (half) title, at p. 75.

There is a "Preface, by a very Great Writer of very Little Books," on the origin of nursery rhymes, etc., with a page of music, the "March composed by King Henry the Fifth," to which—as the "great writer" asserts—the French adapted the words, "There was an old woman toss'd in a blanket," etc. The notes of the editor, and his (pretended) extracts from learned authors, are very well done. "Patch on Prudence," "Winslow's View of Bath," "Boyle," "Wickliffe," "Bentley on the Sublime and Beautiful," are among the commentators cited. Was the English edition Newbery's—and was the editor and annotator Oliver Goldsmith?

"However numerous the Almanacs to be seen on the mantel-pieces in the homes of New England—whether religious, political, statistical, medical, or comic, the 'old Farmer's Almanac' is almost universally one among them, generally occupying a conspicuous place... From the time of the first publication of this Almanac, its popularity has steadily increased to the present time. It commenced in 1793, with 3,000 copies; at the 40th year of its publication it had increased to 110,000, at which time the author informed the writer that the supply in no one year had been equal to the demand, and probably a half million of copies have of late been annually sold."—M., in Boston Daily Transcript, Nov., 1865.

NEW YORK, PENNSYLVANIA, VIRGINIA.

The First New York Almanac.

7389 [An Almanack for 1697. By John Clapp,] wants title and last leaf; had when complete, 26 leaves, in fours (A–E, f, g); a few lines torn from the top of the 25th leaf; uncut.

8° [New York, William Bradford, 1697]

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The First Almanac printed in New York. Its editor and publisher, John Clapp, kept a house of entertainment "about two mile without the City of New-York, at the place called the Bowry," which was "generally the bating place, where Gentlemen take leave of their Friends going so long a Journey" as from New York to Boston, in "a parting glass or two of generous Wine." Against the 24th of June, in the calendar, he gives notice that "in commemoration of the feast of St. John Baptist (& to keep up a happy union & lasting friendship, by the sweet harmony of good society) a feast is held by the Johns of this City, at John Clapp's in the Bowry, where any Gentleman whose christian name is John may find a hearty wellcome to joyn in consort with his Namesakes."

In the "Epistle Dedicatory" to Governor Fletcher, Clapp says:—

"Being animated hereunto by some hints received from your Excellency, who wondering that no Person in this Province did undertake to write an Almanack every Year, but must be beholden to a stranger for one, This, I say (may it please your Excellency) put me upon the work, and to run the venture of those many Censures that attends the Press in matters of this or the like nature."

"To the Kind Reader," he repeats, that "having little else to do, and finding this whole Province beholding to a stranger for a New Almanack every year" he "did resolve to set himself upon the Work," etc.

Opposite each page of the calendar, is a page of "Observations" on the month, in verse. Remarks on Eclipses, with "a short discourse of those two glorious Bodies, the Sun and Moon," occupy ten pages,—followed by a Table of the Kings of England, and a rhymed chronology, in five pages. More interesting are "a Chronological Account of the Domestic Occurrences, from the first settlement of this Province," and tables of the "several Stages & Post-Roads from the City of New-York to Boston," and from New York to Philadelphia, with the houses of entertainment.

A notice of this Almanac, with copies of the dedicatory epistle, provincial chronology, etc., was communicated to Valentine's Manual for 1853, by "E. B. C.," to whom a copy—evidently the same copy here described—had been loaned by an antiquarian friend.

7390 (Gaine's) New-York Pocket Almanack, for 1761; by Thomas Moore, Philo.; 1764, 1767, 1768, 1772, 1775, 1788, 1792, 1793, 1796–99, and 1 dupl.; by Richard (and Thomas) Moore. New York, Hugh Gaine — Ming's U. S. Register, 1809; by Abr. Shoemaker. N. Y., Alex. Ming — Sword's Pocket Almanack . . and Eccles. Register, for 1827, and 1829. N. Y., T. & J. Swords. 17 Almanacs. 32° — Gaine's Universal Register, or Columbian Kalendar, for 1787, nice copy. 16° N. Y., H. Gaine. (18)

Twelve of the Almanacs are in their original Dutch lackered paper or marbled covers. Twelve are interleaved, and contain local and personal memoranda, shipping news, &c. by New York merchants, and others. The Almanac for 1772, has some leaves injured by cutting, but contains, uninjured, the rare "PROSPECT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK." The Almanac for 1799 contains a few entries of marriages and births in the Brevoort, Goelet, and Hicks families.

To every one who is not a professed theologian, this is the most interesting work of its author. Among the Questions that Mr. Stoddard essayed to answer are these: "Wherein doth the oppression of the Country principally consist?" "Is it lawful for Men to set their Dwelling Houses at such a distance from the place of Publick Worship, that they and their families cannot well attend it?" "Is not the depreciating the Bills of Publick Credit matter of Provocation?" "Is it Lawfull to wear Long Hair?"—to which is annexed the reverend author's "Thoughts concerning Periwigs"—"At what time of [Saturday] Evening does the Sabbath begin?" "Hooped Petticoats" are denounced, in the final paragraph, as "plainly contrary to the Light of Nature." (See Tracts, No. 7838).

Six VERY RARE Tracts. The "Plea for the Ministers" is not in the catalogue of the Prince or the Mass. Hist. Society's library. In the Am. Antiq. Society's Catalogue of Ante-Revol. Publications, in Sibley's Harvard Graduates (I. 458), and in Sabin's Dictionary (no. 46717) its authorship is wrongly ascribed to Increase Mather—whose "Discourse concerning the Maintenance due to those who preach the Gospel," published the same year, is directly opposed to the views of the anonymous author of "A Plea." Neither Angier's "Spiritual Anatomizing" nor the 2d edition of J. Webb's "Young Man's Duty" is in the Mass. Hist. Society's or the Prince Library Catalogue, and the latter is not found in Haven's (Am. Antiq. Society's) Catalogue. The first edition of Bridge's "Jethro's Advice" is, also, of great rarity.

Boston*, 1719. Nine VERY RARE tracts, in one volume, old calf, with the autograph of Timothy Green, the printer of Boston and New London. 16°

The tract on "Hoop Petticoats" deserves special notice. The object of the writer was evidently to cast ridicule on the reverend divines who made a "case of conscience" of the prevailing fashion and particularly on the Rev. Solomon Stoddard who in his "Answer to some Case of Conscience" printed June 25th, 1722 (see No. 7815) had arraigned "HOOPED Petticoats," as "contrary to the Light of Nature" and having "something of Nakedness." These two objections are urged and enforced by satirical argument and citations of texts of scripture, by the author of this squib printed by Franklin—which is as well-done, of its kind, as Defoe's "Shortest Way with the Dissenters." It may have been the work of some member of that "Hell Fire Club" of free-thinkers whose essays, contributed to Franklin's "New England Courant," led to his imprisonment and to the prohibition by the General Court of his further publication of that newspaper. (See THOMAS, Hist. of Printing, I. 215, 218.) Or was it one the "short essays" which young Benjamin Franklin began about this time, "privately, to compose"?

This tract of 1722 is not mentioned in Haven's (Am. Antiq. Soc.) Catalogue nor in Sabin's Dictionary, but the former has the title under 1726, and the latter gives the same date, in brackets. It was advertised as "first published and sold by the Printer," in the Courant, April, 1726: see DRAKE'S Hist. of Boston, p. 583, note.

7948 RICH (O.) Catalogue of Books relating principally to America (1500–1700) — Bibliotheca Americana Nova ... Books relating to America; Vol. I. (1701–1800); Vol. II. (1801–1844), with Supplement, Books relating to America, 1493–1700, and Catalogue of Books for sale by O. Rich. 3 vols. cloth, uncut. 8° London, 1832–46

The second volume has many pencilled marginal notes by Mr. Brinley.

7949 — Part I. of a Catalogue of Books relating to America, printed 1500–1600, collected by O. Rich, pp. 20, in original wrapper, uncut. 8° London, 1832 — Rich and Sons' Catalogue of Books on sale, pp. 128, gilt edges. 18° London, 1848. 2 Pamphlets.

7950 — Catalogue of Books relating to America (1500–1700). London, 1832 — TERNAUX (H.) Bibliothèque Américaine .. Ouvrages relatifs a l'Amérique qui ont paru .. jusqu'a l'an 1700, pp. viii, 191. Paris, 1837. The two in one volume, green morocco, gilt.

From the library of Richard Ford (author of the Hand-book for Spain, etc.) whose autograph is on the title page of Rich's Catalogue, "given him by Mr. Rich, the Author." On the half-title of Ternaux' Catalogue Mr. Ford has left this note: "Mons^r Ternaux, a respectable imitator of Cashmere shawls, has borrowed all that is worth knowing in this rechauffé from Mr. Rich's work, the eminent and well known collector of rare Spanish typography."

7951 SABIN (J.) & Sons. The American Bibliopolist: Vols. 1–5, in numbers, uncut (except Nos. 1–3 of Vol. I.), wanting Nos. 61 and 62 of Vol. 5, and titles and indexes of last two volumes. 5 vols. 8° New York, J. Sabin & Sons, 1869–74

7952 SABIN (Joseph) A Dictionary of Books relating to America, from its Discovery to the Present Time. Parts 1–76 (Vols. I–XIII, p. 392), wanting Parts 7 & 8, 51 & 52, and the last six leaves of Part 46, injured. 13 vols. 8° New York, 1869–1880

It is needless to re-affirm here the judgment pronounced by American librarians and bibliographers, on Mr. Sabin's work—a monument, not less enduring because unfinished, to his large knowledge, his conscientious research, his general accuracy, and his untiring energy. None can assent more heartily than the present writer to the opinion expressed by Mr. Justin Winsor, that "its imperfections are inseparable from such a work," while "its merits are positive, and no one can deal with the titles of Americana, as I have to a considerable degree for years, without knowing the help it can afford, which is always opportune and often great."

PREFACE.

THE fifth and last portion of the American library of the late Mr. George Brinley, after a long delay occasioned by causes beyond the control of the administrators, is now offered for sale.

While the present portion of the catalogue is less in extent, and perhaps in richness of contents, than some of its predecessors, it will be found well worth the careful perusal of all interested in this class of literature. In the department of local history it presents many treasures, as also in that of biography. The extensive pamphlet collections here catalogued are of more than passing interest, for example those of Fourth of July Orations, Fast and Thanksgiving Sermons, Historical and Military Sermons and Addresses, etc.

In the section of Books Privately Printed will be found specimens of some of the rarest of American private and restricted editions; while in that of Newspapers and Periodicals are files and bound volumes which cannot be duplicated in the market. Mr. Brinley was not a collector of maps, nor of autographs; but incidentally he came into possession of some very interesting examples in each of these lines. For instance, note the UNIQUE MS. CHARTS of Boston and New York Harbors described on p. 144, (Nos. 9316, 9317) and the fine collection of Revolutionary and other letters catalogued on pp. 145–154, as well as many other autographs scattered through the catalogue, as on p. 98.

In reviewing this series of catalogues now happily brought to a close, one cannot repress his regret that the collector of this most noteworthy of American libraries was not spared to complete it on the lines on which he had laid it out and to enjoy its continued possession; nor, on the other hand, can one adequately estimate the service rendered to the public and to the cause of American history by one who, like Mr. Brinley, rescues from destruction and oblivion the literary monuments and the "unconsidered trifles" of the infancy of our nation, and puts them in the way of preservation and usefulness to all coming time.

Wilkes's notes were made in minute but legible handwriting, with a fine-pointed pencil. In the following extracts the penciled notes are included in brackets: Mr. Hollis — writes Archdeacon Blackburn — was "a character of remarkable singularity and by no means calculated for general imitation."— ["The EMILE of PATRIOTISM," suggests Wilkes.]

"Strange as it may seem, our patriot [most nobly, most wisely, most liberally, most justly] espoused the cause of the prerogative" — in the dispute concerning the royal proclamation against exporting corn, in 1766... "He informs us, however, that... when, in a visit to Mrs. Macaulay, the question, 'Whether evil may be committed to a great sole public good?' being debated between them, he strenuously held the negative. Does not this look as if he had changed his opinion?" ["Not at all: for the Question is not in point, since Lds. Cht. and Cmd. (Chatham and Camden) committed no 'Evil.'"] p. 307.

"The wretch who would drown a nation's cries with the torrent of corruption: — in vain; the voice of an injured people, like the sword of Michael, will hunt him from his seat of bliss," etc. ["Yes: quoth the Fool: but not to Day."] p. 627.

A bright and fresh copy, in sound old (the original) binding; a slight water-stain on the inner corner of a portion of the O. T. (Kings to Psalms). The page measures about 7¾ inches by 5⅝ at the head; but the volume was badly trimmed, and is nearly a quarter of an inch narrow at the foot. Some of the marginal references, on the lower half of the pages, have been cut into. It has not the leaf containing the "Catechism," at the end of the Psalms in Metre. The second edition, revised by J. Cotton, which is the more valuable to students. This is an excellent working and reference copy. It formerly belonged to Dr. John Pickering, whose autograph is on a fragment of a guard leaf.

"This interesting collection of periodical writings is of the greatest rarity. Thorpe, in one of his Catalogues, states that a gentleman had assured him he could meet with but one copy in his travels through Spain, for which he was asked upwards of £30. It is generally found defective, and copies vary to a considerable degree. The above copy is no exception to this rule: it wants Nos. 303–4, in Vol. IX, which are very frequently absent. Some Nos. have been omitted, while the pagination remains correct; and sometimes there are two with the same No., although the text runs on correctly. . . The periodical seems to have been produced under great difficulties and discouragements: it was suppressed by the Spanish government."—B. Quaritch, Gen. Catalogue, 1880.
A 12th (and last) volume was published in 1794–5. Mr. Quaritch's copy of the 12 vols. was marked £18. in 1880. It should bring a higher price now.

Opinion on the case, etc. (1 vol., stitched. 2 pamphlets.)

Jean Gravier of New Orleans inherited land lying in front of the city in one of the deltas of the Mississippi, known as the Batture Ste. Marie (or Jesuits' Batture). Edward Livingston undertook to establish Gravier's claim, and was opposed by the city, the United States, and Thos. Jefferson. "The Batture controversy may take rank with the most striking of the logical or literary duels to which we are wont to refer long after their local or temporary interest has died away, as specimens of learning, acuteness, raillery, or wit. Livingston's answers to Jefferson are little inferior in their way to Bentley's reply to Boyle, Porson's Letters to Travis, or . . . Courier's pamphlets; and involve principles of jurisprudence of universal application." (A. Hayward: Ed. Rev. v. 120.) The above is A RARELY COMPLETE COLLECTION of the pamphlets (in English) relating to the case.

THOMAS PRINCE'S COPY. AUTOGRAPH AND NOTES.

On the title-page (finely engr. by Elstracke) are the autographs of "Matth. Matson" and "Jn° Watkin"; while on the back of title is "T. Prince. Boston. 8 May 29, 1772. □ ⊏" and scattered through the volume are marginal references, underscorings and marks by him (see on pp. 45–6, 157, 160, 221 and elsewhere). The beautiful plates at pp. 60, 68, of King James sitting on his throne, and in the House of Lords, with the other plates of Peers in their robes are all in good condition. The volume contains also several hundred wood-cut COATS OF ARMS; but as is usual even in much finer copies than this the list of the natural children of Charles Blunt, Earl of Devonshire, on p. 493 is missing. At pp. 72–3 is an early instance of printed Anglo-Saxon.

Although the volume is supposed to be nearly perfect, the sheet (p. 671) is wrongly folded and the pagination is far from continuous; there are no known "outs"; but the volume is not sold subject to collation. "As the earliest book of its class, it requires to be viewed with lenity, and also quoted with caution."— T. MAULE. Bibliotheca Heraldica. SCARCE.

9183 NICOLAUS, episcopus Modrusiensis. Oratio in funere Reuerendissimi do | mini. Dñi Petri Cardinalis sancti Six | ti habita a Reuerēdo patre domino | Nicolas episcopo Modrusiensi. n. p. n. d., pp. 9, 30 + 31 lines. in 4° Fine old green crushed levant morocco, back gilt, sides and edges filleted, inside borders gilt and g. e. (by DEROME) IN CLEAN AND PERFECT STATE.

Probably printed in Rome immediately after the death of the Cardinal, which event took place Jan. 5, 1474. There were later editions — the first with a date was in 1483. Graesse, Brunet, and Hain are agreed that the edition described above may be safely assigned to 1474. The page measures 8 1-16 × 5 5-16 inches.

OWEN'S EPIGRAMS, ON VELLUM.

9185 OWEN (John) Joannis Audoeni Cambro-Britanni Epigrammata. Editio prioribus auctior, longeque emendatior, cura Ant. Aug. RENOUARD, Parisini. ONE OF FOUR COPIES PRINTED ON VELLUM by Didot, Paris, 1794, pp. xii, 525, plate; dk. green str.-grained morocco, filleted edges, inside borders, and lined with purple silk; IN CLEAN, BEAUTIFUL CONDITION. 2 vols. 12°

It is hardly necessary to say that these SUPERLATIVELY FINE volumes are all that typographic taste and art can express; while this edition of the celebrated Epigrammata is in all respects the best (see Lowndes, et al.). Renouard, in his Cat. de la Bibliothéque d'un Amateur (v. 2, p. 348) says that one of these four copies on vellum is in the "Bibliothéque du Roi," and another in Lord Spencer's (the Althorp) collection. There were many editions of the work, but it cost the author an expected inheritance, and was in 1654 put on the Index Expurgatorius of the Roman church.

SCARCE, only 100 copies printed. Priced by Quaritch at £3, 3s. The whole edition of Vol. III, Collections of the Conn. Histor. Soc., of which this was to form a part, was burned while in the bindery, and has not been reprinted. Of the original, only two copies are known.

TWO UNIQUE AND VALUABLE CHARTS.

9316 Boston Harbour. Original water-colored chart, by Philip Wells; with soundings without and comings in, as taken by Capt. John Fayrwether, Capt. Thomas Smith, Capt. Timothy Armitage, Capt. Joseph Eldridge, Masters, and Philip Wells, employed for the same by his Excellency Sir Edmund Andros, Knight, Captain General and Governour of His Majesties Territory and Dominion in New England in America. Size 17×22 inches. Scale one mile to one inch.

"THE EARLIEST KNOWN CHART OF THE HARBOR." See Winsor, J. Memorial History of Boston, Vol. ii. p. 1. A note by J. Hammond Trumbull is there given, from which the following passages are extracted: —

"The chart, which is very neatly drawn and colored, occupies about one foot square, on a sheet measuring 21 inches by 19 inches. The shoals, banks and reefs are shaded in colors, and single rocks and ledges are indicated by crosses. The soundings of the main channels and passages between the harbor islands are marked in fathoms. The scale is one inch to a mile.

"In the right-hand lower corner, under a scale of miles, is: 'By Philip Wells,' and below, in smaller letters, 'M. Carroll,' — probably the signature of the draughtsman.

"The inscription fixes the date of the chart nearly, between the arrival of Andros in December, 1686, and the revolution of April, 1689.

"Philip Wells had been Governor Dongan's surveyor in New York, and was one of the commissioners appointed to run the line between that province and Connecticut, in 1684. He made 'A Land Draught of New York Harbour,' which is also in Mr. Brinley's collection [See No. 9317], . . . drawn and lettered by the same hand and probably in the same year as that of Boston harbor. The two were found together, in a parcel of the 'Penn Papers,' sold in London, by Mr. E. G. Allen, in 1871, the Boston map bringing three guineas. It is numbered No. 281 in Allen's catalogue.

"Capt. John Fayerweather, who had served in the Indian war of 1675–76, and commanded one of the Boston train-bands, was a prominent man in Boston before and after the Usurpation. At the Revolution of April, 1689, he was appointed commander of the Castle. Capt. Thomas Smith commanded the 'Jersey' frigate in the Expedition against the Eastern Indians, in 1704. Of Captains Armitage and Eldrige I know little more than their names."

9317 New York Harbour. Original water-colored chart; a Land Draught of New York Harbour, by Philip Wells. Size 17×22 inches. Scale 7 miles to one inch.

See above note to No. 9316.

. . . "I think I have not written you since the late desertion of Arnold. Was you ever more astonished in your life? A man high in reputation, and with the fairest prospects of domestic happiness. The love of parade and the thirst for gold has proved his ruin. How black, how despised, loved by none, and hated by all. Once his country's Idol, now her horror. Curse on his folly, nay his villainy, and most of all his meanness. The latter has been displayed in such dirty colours in his transactions at this post, as has not been equalled in the history of man. All kind of private and public robbery has he pursued, and accompanyed it, with such circumstances of littleness as shows him to be the basest of mortals. I freely confess I had no conception notwithstanding the converse I have had with mankind, that it was possible for human nature to arrive at such a degree of corruption. The discovery has been very providential. Had these posts fallen into the enemies hands, God knows what might have been the consequence. But I think little short of the entire subjection of America. What a triumph to british pride; and what a downfall to American glory. Poor Congress what would have become of you? . . . The General has sent me to take command here; but for how long a time I know not." . . .

. . . "Things here remain much in the same situation as they have been for some time past. For several Days past firing has ceast totally. It is said by several Deserters out of Boston that the last ship arrived, brings accounts that the difference is soon to be settled — but unless the Ministry is overset the dispute never will be settled. If we can preserve our freedom and continue our connexion I should be very glad of it — but I had rather continue in the field seven years than submit to their tyranical measures." . . .
